Council Makes Traffic Safer at 12th and Poplar

The Benton City Council, in session Monday night, acted to lessen the dangerous traffic condition at the Court Square corner of 12th and Poplar.

The Council voted to remove one to three parking meters along the Poplar Street side of Myers & Elkins Grocery and make this a free parking zone for trucks to unload merchandise.

Heretofore, the trucks have parked in front of the grocery store and created a hazardous traffic condition.

Another Chance
The Council also voted to remove one parking meter from the corner of 12th and Poplar directly across Poplar Street from Filbeck-Cann Funeral Home.

Councilmen also voted to install parking meters on the south side of 10th Street, between Main and Poplar Streets.

The new theatre is owned and will be operated by Jack Wright and Preston Southard. Each has had many, many years experience in the operation of motion pictures.

Opening night (tonight) is free to everyone at the new theatre and the feature will be "Cruising Down the River" starring Dick Haymes and Audrey Totter.

The new drive-in also will feature a complete concession stand with hamburgers, hot dogs, coca cola, snow cones and popcorn.

HAL PERRY LOW BIDDER ON SHOPPING CENTER

Hal Perry, Benton contractor, was low bidder on the new shopping center to be erected at Calvert City. Perry's bid was $89,420.

Bob McWaters of Benton bid $102,346 on the project. Other bids were John Russell Baker & Associates, $92,495, and Harper & Grap, Paducah, $101,597.

The shopping center will house a super market, a bank and other businesses.

Trash Cans To Be Placed On Square By Kiwanis Club

The Benton Kiwanis Club has started a project to put trash cans on the Court Square to keep our town as clean as possible.

Steel barrels will be donated by local oil distributors. The Kiwanians will paint the barrels green and put signs on them.

The signs probably will read "Help Keep Our City Clean. Place trash here. Sponsored by Kiwanis Club."

Permission to place the barrels on the square was given by the City Council Monday night.

Under the proposed plan about 15 feet would be cut off the west side of the courtyard, about 30 feet off the south side and 20 or 25 feet off the east side. Little, if any, would be cut off the north side.

Cost of the project is the stumbling block in getting started on it. Rotarians figured if the courtyard dirt could be sold, the cost problems would be almost solved.

Club members decided the dirt could be purchased for only 50 cents per yard. They figured there would be about 2,000 yards of dirt for sale.

Any person wishing to sign up for purchasing the dirt are asked to contact H. H. Lovett Sr., Van Roberts or B. L. Treverthan. This should be done as soon as possible, so the project can get started. If the dirt can be sold, the main problem of expense of the project can be solved.

Another idea for solving the Court Square traffic problem came to light this week.

Merchants along Main Street, from 11th to 12th, directly in front of the courthouse, are considering deeding the alley behind their stores to the city so the city can improve the alley and make it possible for trucks to unload merchandise from the alley instead of Main Street.

Trucks that double park on Main or any other street on the Court Square block traffic and create dangerous conditions. It is a problem that Benton long has been struggling with, and it appears now that the citizens and merchants have become interested enough to get something done about it.

The group will play a season of 20 games. These games will be played every Tuesday and Thursday nights.

A big crowd is anticipated for the opening game tonight at City Park.

Welcome, Newspaper Folks

Marshall County in general and Kentucky Dam Village State Park in particular will be hosts this week to the annual summer meeting of the Kentucky Press Association.

The meeting will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Village.

Editors, publishers and other newspaper workers from all sections of the state will gather to discuss the many problems of "getting out" a newspaper.

The trip to Kentucky Dam Village is nothing new to the newspaper folks, and each year these visitors have returned to their homes with high praise of the hospitality of Marshall County.

The Courier joins with the good citizens of this county in wishing the "press" a happy and successful convention and offers a prayer for the newspaper folks that they may continue to keep the newspapers of our great state and nation unfettered and completely free.

Big Annual Birmingham Reunion to be Held July 4

Plans are being made now for the annual Birmingham homecoming to be held, as usual, the first Sunday in July at Birmingham Park on Kentucky Lake.

This year the date will be July 4, which is national Independence Day.

Last year, more than 800 persons attended the reunion. An equally large crowd is expected this year.

Charles L. Locker, acting president of the Birmingham Homecoming Association, says that a fine entertainment program is being arranged for the day. The park, located on the old George Holland hill on the old Birmingham Road, will be cleaned up and span for the reunion.

Everybody is invited to attend the event and bring a basket lunch. There will be plenty of free ice water for all.

Margaret De Priest is secretary of the association and Gracie Richardson is treasurer of the group.

Junior officers of the association are Sanders Watkins, president; Cecil Dunnigan, vice president; Mark Clayton, secretary, and Francis Goheen, treasurer. The junior officers will serve as senior officers next year and a new group of junior officers will be elected.

While he covered Wyatt, the first man emptied the cash register of $110.

The men questioned Wyatt closely about any other money he might have in the place. Wyatt said he told them there was no more.

"You're smarter than most of these people. You keep your mouth shut," he quoted one of the bandits.

Before leaving the bandits made Wyatt turn his back and not to move for five minutes.

Although he listened carefully, Wyatt said he didn't hear a sound after that, not even of their footsteps leaving the place. He waited five minutes, he said, before leaving to telephone.

Officials To Protest New Tax Increase

Tax assessment raises in Marshall County were announced this week by the Kentucky Tax Commission at Frankfort.

The raises in this county are as follows:

Town lots—70 percent raise. Farms and acreage—20 percent raise.

Inventories—30 percent raise. Construction and drilling equipment—30 percent raise.

Manufacturing machinery—30 percent raise. Farm tractors—30 percent raise.

Other farm machinery—30 percent raise. Livestock—30 percent raise.

Air and water craft—30 percent raise. Professional trade tools—30 percent raise.

The blanket raises made all over the state by the Kentucky Tax Commission have resulted in many protests. In some cases, protests made by counties have resulted in the assessments being changed to a lower figure.

County Tax Commissioner Milburn Jones branded the raises in Marshall County as "ridiculous" and declared that he would vigorously protest. Jones also stated that he had nothing whatever to do with the increase in assessments.

Marshall County's protest hearing has been set by the state commission for 2 p.m. next Thursday, June 17, at Frankfort.

Jones said he definitely would be there. County Attorney H. I. Lovett Jr. and County Judge Artelle Hulton also may attend the protest hearing.

Any property owner in the county has the privilege of attending the hearing, and if Marshall County is to receive any lower assessment it would be advisable for as many citizens as possible to go to the protest hearing.

Calloway County received a blanket raise of 35 percent on city and farm property. A group of Calloway citizens protested the increase, and the Kentucky Tax Commission lowered the figure.

Marshall County property owners likewise may be able to obtain a smaller assessment if enough pressure is put on the State Tax Commission at the June 17 protest meeting.

In simple, round number figures the increase in Marshall County is explained as follows:

Say you own property in Benton. You now are paying $100 per year in city taxes. Under the new increased assessments your tax bill next year will be $170—which is the 70 percent increase the state has asked for.

Say you own a farm. Your land taxes now are $100. With the 20 percent increase, your land taxes next year will be $120. In addition, farmers will receive a 30 percent increase on the assessment of their tractors and farm equipment and also a 30 percent increase on all their livestock.

Out of every $100 a Marshall County citizen pays, the public schools of Marshall County receive $66.70. Out of this same $100, the county's fiscal court receives $33.30. The remaining $22.20 goes to the state.

Amos on Alcohol

Lesson for June 13, 1954

THE prophets of Israel are singularly up-to-date. They lived thousands of miles away from here, thousands of years ago. Yet the problems of mankind are much the same then as now. The prophet's inspired eyes could see what was wrong with the world around him, and he would say bluntly what it was. But few prophets often used that blanket word "sin." Nobody's in favor of sin. What the prophet always did was to name Dr. Foreman certain particular sins. These habits, these acts, these customs, he would say—these are what our country is dying from. These things are fatal. So it was in 800 B.C., so it is in 1954, A.D.

Liquor Is Not Alone

It is only fanatics who believe that some one sin is by itself destroying the country. No sin, in fact, exists by itself. Also it is true that when a country is destroyed, as Israel was destroyed, it dies of more than one disease. The prophet Amos named a number of evils which were eating into the vitality of his nation and people. The consumption of liquor was one of these. But Amos never said that liquor was the only thing wrong with his country. He associates it with selfishness, greed, indifference to real problems, adultery, dishonesty and other sins. One of the bad features of liquor is that it attaches itself to other evils and makes them worse. There would be speeding on the highways even if everyone were always cold sober; but drinking drivers make the problem worse and the accidents more often fatal. (There really can't be such a thing as a drunken driver—a drunk can't drive at all. It's the drinking driver who makes the trouble.) There would be murders if whiskey had never been heard from. But every day murders are reported in the papers that would no doubt never have been committed if everyone concerned had been sober at the time. Rape and seduction are not unheard of by any means, in Mohammedan countries where alcoholic drinks are completely forbidden. But liquor pushes many young people over the edge who without it could retain their self-control and self-respect, but with it in them, lose both.

The Best People

In the time of Amos he took note of some quite "respectable" people who were drinkers. Churchgoers he mentions first of all, people who drink wine "in the house of their god." (This of course has nothing whatsoever to do with the communion service, a sacrament instituted by Christ.) He condemns these churchgoers more than he does the riff-raff. It is worse for some people to drink than it is for others; and perhaps worst of all for church people. After all is said and done, people who know little and may care less about what is right and what is wrong, will think that anything a church member does must be all right. One church member who is known to drink, even if he is very temperate about it, can do more harm than a dozen alcoholics. Another respectable class Amos mentions are the women of wealth and social position. Amos is not exactly respectful to these ladies; on the contrary he calls them cattle, "kine of Bashan"—a specially fat kind of cattle of these days. Again, the use of liquor by wives of successful men, women who are leaders in their communities, does more harm than all the drinking down in the poolrooms. The harm done to others by the drinker is often greater than what he does to himself.

Amos Saw It Coming

Amos predicted that his country would soon fall because of its sins, and fall it did. No doubt the drinkers of his day thought their liquor drinking helped them to escape from the troubles. Amos could see that it only brought on more troubles. The truth about liquor is seldom to be had from people who are its victims, more seldom still from those who make money by it. Ministers, doctors, welfare workers, see the situation from the standpoint of those who have to try to patch up the wrecks. Do you want a strong America? Strong countries, like strong people, are not made so by strong drink.

Soil Conservation Notes

By HERBERT ANDERSON

B. L. Allcock, south of Gilbertsville, sowed several acres of Kentucky Fescue in the early spring. The seeding was done on land capability class two bottom land. A good stand was obtained.

Curt Chambers, west of Benton on the Oak Level Road, plans to do five acres of land clearing this summer. A complete treatment of lime and fertilizer will then be worked into the soil before seeding pasture grasses.

Ned Pace, east of Hardin, has staked a 1600 foot open ditch

drain. The Soil Conservation Service made a survey of the proposed ditch.

The survey showed that he could successfully drain several acres of class three bottom land.
The ditch will need to be three feet wide in the bottom with an average depth of two and one-half feet. Two to one side slopes will make the ditch 13 feet wide at the top. The grade will be .15 of a foot per 100 feet.

R. E. Ford, Scale, lost part of his corn and tobacco crop in the destructive rain the night of June 2.

In many places in the county the small streams got higher than they had for several years.
The following morning it was easy to see gullies between corn rows which were planted up and down the hills.

Most all sloping cropland which had been plowed and planted was severely damaged where no protective measures, such as terraces, contour planting, and sod waterways had been established.

Buster Farley helped us stake
a pond last week for Alfred Houser west of Benton. He has an ideal location for a large pond. However, some dirt will need to be moved which will not be needed to build a dam. This would give the needed depth of two and one-half feet in the upper end of the pond.

Charles Jackson came in the office last week and got his land capability map.

Maps are available for other cooperators of the Marshall County Soil Conservation District as follows: George Lovett, W. L. Frazier, Clay Henson, Wilson Henderson, E. O. Frizzell, Earl Devine, Wesley Stone, J.
W. Creason, Robert Butler, Noah
Lovett, and Brown Riley.

Human erosion goes hand in hand with soil erosion.

Used Car Dealers Held Responsible For Their Products

Frankfort—Automobile dealers were held responsible for the condition of second-hand vehicles sold by them, it was held by the Court of Appeals in rejecting a petition for rehearing filed by automobile associations throughout the state. It was rejected by a vote of four to three.

Effect of the decision is to hold dealers responsible for "reasonable care" in inspecting vehicles to discover defects before resale. Failure to do so may hold the dealer liable at law for damages.

The initial decision holds Galdry Motors, Inc., Lexington, liable for $11,489 in damages to Albert Brannon, who lost a leg in an accident, in such a vehicle. Brannon was pinned against a building by a vehicle driven by William Hensley, shortly after he bought the vehicle from Galdry Motors.

State Judicial System Overhaul Considered

Frankfort—Initial steps looking toward a complete overhaul of the state's judicial system have been taken by the Legislative Research Commission in conformity with a directive of the 1954 General Assembly that a complete study be taken looking toward that end.

Representatives of the Kentucky Judicial Council, the Constitution Review Commission and the State Bar Association will serve in an advisory capacity to the commission which is to report to the next General Assembly its findings.

Problems to be considered
during the study include:
Whether to abolish all judicial functions of present county judges and make of that official solely an administrative officer—it not being required that he be a lawyer.

Establishment of an intermediate court between circuit courts and Court of Appeals.

Establishment in each county of a court of original jurisdiction with a continuous term.

Wheat Crop Must Be Measured Prior To Being Marketed

If you have any wheat for grain it is very important that you contact the ASC office in Benton immediately. The marketing quota regulations require all wheat to be measured before the farm is issued a marketing card.

Each farm must have a marketing card to sell wheat or to carry wheat to a mill and have it made into flour. Each farm that raises wheat for seed is required to have the wheat measured.

If a reporter has not visited your farm and you have wheat be sure to notify the ASC office at once and avoid paying a penalty on your wheat.

Average American Now Lives to Age of 68

Washington — The average American now lives 68½ years, an all-time record and an increase of nearly four years from the average life expectancy 10 years ago.

New figures drawn up by the United States Public Health Service are based on death rates in 1951. The average length of life in 1951 "generally showed little change from 1950," the report said.

It showed that women on the average outlive men by six years. The average lifetime expected for women at birth is 71.8 years, compared with 65.9 years for men. The report said this difference has increased sharply since 1900, when women outlived men by an average of only two years.

The Farm FRONT-

By J. HOMER MILLER

The heaviest rainfall of the year for a 24-hour period fell last week when 1.9 inches was measured. One inch of this fell in 30 minutes. Severe erosion resulted from the downpour.

A number of fields of hay were damaged and many fields of corn must be replanted.

The Bank of Marshall County paid meals and lodging again this year for five girls and one leader to 4-H week in Lexington.

The Marshall County Farm Bureau helped with the travel expenses. The five girls attending are Delores Goheen, Carolyn Lee, Adoree Jones, Mayme Jewel Phillips and June Story. The leader is Mrs. Clint Story.

The boys will not be able to attend since only one boy could go. Donald Lynn was to go. He will go next year instead.

Ten TVA demonstrators have placed orders for over 60 tons of fused phosphate. This will be used on demonstration fields to show the value of proper fertilization for cover crops, grasses and legumes. Potash, nitrate and lime will be used with the phosphate where needed. All fields have been tested for soil fertility.

L. G. Sutherland, veterinarian, will move into town the first of next week with his family. He will be located at 576 Mayfield Road.

With a licensed veterinarian in the county we can now start our calfhood vaccination program for bangs. A rabies vaccination program will be announced in a few days.

Kentucky Lake Paradise for Vacationists From Far, Near

Kentucky Lake, only 10 years old, has become one of the nation's best known playgrounds. And certainly it is the most popular resort in the Central United States.

Within the boundaries of Marshall County, there are two big state parks on Kentucky Lake. They are Kentucky Dam Village State Park at Gilbertsville and Kentucky Lake State Park at Aurora.

Both parks have everything a tourist's heart could desire — sailing, fishing, cruising, golfing, picnicking or just plain loafing.

Kentucky Dam Village State Park contains 1,000 acres of beautiful vacation land. It has 49 completely modern furnished vacation cottages and three lodges. It has a trailer and tent camping area.

It boasts of a modern accredited airport with 3500-foot runways. It has a beautiful nine hole golf course, a fine sand beach and modern bath houses and plenty of picnicking areas. It also is the "home" of the gigantic $115,000,000 Kentucky Dam, the ninth largest in the United States.

Kentucky Lake State Park is the home of famous Kenlake Hotel, a vacation paradise that cost $600,000. This park also has furnished vacation cottages, a beautiful sand beach and bath houses, picnic grounds, boating and fishing spots.

Fishing is permissible the year round on Kentucky Lake. License for a Kentucky resident is $2 per year. For an out-of-state fisherman, the license costs $5 per year or $2 for a 10-day vacation period.

All along the shores of the lake and on the highways leading to the lake are many modern motels, filling stations, grocery stores, gift and novelty shops, sporting goods places, boat docks and fishing camps to serve the thousands of tourists who visit the lake each summer.

On this page are listed some of the firms that serve lake tourists. They are:

Jonathan Creek Court — on U. S. 68 five miles east of junction on Ky. Route 408.

Gordons Boat Dock—On U. S. 68 at Jonathan Creek.

King Shopping Center — at Junction of Highways 68 and 641 three miles from Benton. Groceries and sporting goods.

The Trade Winds—barbecue dining spot at junction of highways 68 and 641 three miles from Benton.

W. W. Joyce Grocery—at Gilbertsville. Its air conditioned. Seebach's Grocery and Restaurant—On Gilbertsville Route 1 on road to Moore's Camp.

Fin n' Feather Inn—A modern motel on U. S. 68 half a mile west of Egner's Ferry Bridge.

Angle Court—A modern motel on U. S. 68 half a mile west of Egner's Ferry Bridge.

Wilkin's Grocery & Motel—

STRENGTH FOR THESE DAYS
 from The Bible
 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us, for we are not ignorant of his devices.—(I Corinthians 2:11.)

We will be and will remain strong only so long as we recognize Satan's devices for what they are. But too often there are habits and indulgences which we cling to stubbornly because they please us —when we know they are harmful, weakening, and unrighteous.
